

SWALLOWFIELD EC, WARWICKS

30 October

By Madeleine Hill

EVERY class from prelim to PSG was won on a score of more than 70% at Swallowfield's freestyle to music day. Kate Attlee won the PSG on Lochness with 79% and the medium on Corbiere with 73.12%, while Jo Swain won the advanced medium freestyle with a hefty plus-80% score on her own Lord Of The Rings.

Sarah Outwin's Lochness is a 12-year-old Dutch-bred horse by Limario and Kate has been riding him for three years. The pair started out at elementary and have come steadily up through the levels. This is his second season at PSG.

"I love doing the music," said Kate. "It can be quite time-consuming, but once it's sorted out, it's great, and it brings out the horse's personality. The music was chosen by Sarah — it's happy-go-lucky, which suits the horse."

Kate aims to do PSG and intermediaire I at

Pictures by Jo Prestwich and Kevin Sparrow